

MUSTANG GRIDDEES — Dansville High's football team, under first-year coach Mike McMullin, will open the season with a bang here Friday night, going against Livingston Conference

Division One foe Avon. Game time at Ralph Clements Field is 7:30 p.m. The Marching Mustangs Band will entertain fans during halftime.

Dansville High Faces Strong Conference Opponent Football Team to Host Avon in Opener

Questions raised in a four-way scrimmage Saturday have to be answered but solutions must be found in a hurry because the Dansville High football team opens the season at home Friday night against Avon.

Kickoff is set of 7:30 p.m. at Ralph Clements Field as Coach Mike McMullin's Mustangs move right into the strong Livingston Conference Division One schedule against one of only two teams able to defeat DCHS last year.

Dansville worked against Genesee, Alexander and Romulus in a control-practice Saturday and came away with fair-to-good ratings in various phases of the game. And in the process, the Mustangs lost an experienced performer as end Mike Wamp, a starter last year, was lost for two to three weeks with a shoulder injury. Brian Sullivan, a letterman tackle, has been slowed with a leg problem but may be ready for the Avon battle.

Tentative lineup for the opener will have Larry Kennedy at center, Pat Byrnes and Lynn Smalt at guards, Roy Alford and John Frisiras at tackles, Ken Heiman at tight end and Bob Mahus at split end.

Three members of the starting backfield are veterans and will carry a heavy load in the overall picture this season. This group includes quarterback Dave Hamsher, tailback Brad West and fullback Chad West. Jim Fox will open at wingback.

Also slated to see early action are Jim King at tailback, Tom Acomb at wingback and Joel Goodwin at center.

With Dansville on defense, the front line will show Corey Davis at nose guard, Alford and Heiman at tackles with Mike Green and Chad West at ends. Brad West and King will be the linebackers and Fox will play rover. The secondary shows Mahus and Acomb at halfbacks and Hamsher at safety. Byrnes will see action as rover or end and Jerry Mitchell will work at one of the tackle slots.

In reviewing the Saturday scrimmage, McMullin explained the line needs to improve and that has been a priority during workouts this week. The running game was strong Saturday but early-season timing problems caused mixups in the passing attack.

Avon also lost key people to graduation but is still rated as one of the stronger teams in the conference with many lettermen returning. One of them is halfback Ron Smith who is an outstanding punter and place-kicker. The team operates out of a power-I formation and "tries to run right over you," the Mustang coach added. Avon scrimmages showed the team will be strong defensively. Dansville's junior varsity will open its season at Avon Saturday morning. Kickoff is set of 10 a.m.

Victorious in Playoffs

Shay Team Cops Softball Crown

Shay's won all the honors during the past season in the Dansville Softball League.

The squad, managed by Denny Hartman, captured the regular schedule title with an outstanding 21-8 record and then went on to gain the playoff championship by winning four of five contests.

In the playoff semi-finals, Shay's won two of three against Matthews Bus. The team came out on top 12-4 in the first battle, lost the second 7-6 and rebounded for an exciting 13-12 victory in the deciding game. Bill Hettrick for Shay's and Don Ingram for Matthews hurred in all three features.

Shay's then entered the finals against Main Tire which had eliminated Harold's in the first round. Two straight victories brought the playoff pennant.

In the first game, it was 10-4 with Hettrick taking the pitching decision over Joe Schledorn. Pacing the winners at the plate with home runs were Terry Brown, Scott Kenney and Dana Wightman. Shay's collected 16 hits overall.

The second outing ended 11-6 with Hettrick and Schledorn again handling mound duties. Wightman provided the power for Shay's with three homers and six rbi's. Kenney also socked a homer. Hitting it out of the park for Main Tire were Dave Falzarano and Mike Heiman.

That closed a 25-4 season for the champions.

Letchworth Loop Ladies in Action
